

The 2018 Sarasolo Festival
presents:

Inner Voices: Sex, Intimacy, and Aging

Written and Performed by the Dynamic, Joy filled, Creative "Out of the Box," Actor, Director and Consultant

Hedda Matza-Haughton

In this poignant performance, Hedda now comes out from her usual director's role and emerges as an actor in this new and exciting venture on stage. Through the eyes and hearts of different characters, experience their truths about sex, intimacy and aging. Hedda's ability to dig deeply into each character's emotions, brings laughter and joy and touches hearts deeply.

This performance is part of Ms. Matza-Haughton's "Words Not Spoken," series where "inner voices," often not shared, are spoken out loud.
